Colorado Springs Philharmonic Music Director Emeritus Lawrence Leighton Smith joins Conservatory faculty

Former ten-year music director of the Colorado Springs Philharmonic Lawrence Leighton Smith continues his extensive and far-reaching music career at the Colorado Springs Conservatory with three programs: Sundays with Larry, First Friday Masterclasses, and Conservatory Student Chamber Music. Presented by the Conservatory with sponsorship from the Philharmonic and 88.7 FM KCME, these presentations will invite both community and students to participate in music understanding and appreciation with one of the nation's foremost conductors.

Smith had this to say about his involvement: "I am deeply grateful for the lifetime of opportunities I have had to embrace my passion for music. In this next chapter of my life, I am dedicated to teaching the young talent at the Conservatory. I'm also delighted to be offering music appreciation classes on Sundays and masterclasses on Fridays at the Conservatory for people of all ages!"

Sundays with Larry $25 per person, per presentation
January 22, February 26, March 25, April 22, May 20 (events start at 3:00 pm)

First Friday Masterclasses $10 per person, per class
February 3, March 2, April 6, May 4 (events start at 4:30 pm)

Conservatory Student Chamber Ensemble
Offered exclusively to students enrolled at the Conservatory for the Spring semester. Interested students should call 719-577-4556 for further information.

All events will take place at the Colorado Springs Conservatory, 415 South Sahwatch. For additional information, visit coloradospringsconservatory.org or call 719-577-4556.
